Become a celebrity

Sarah Fulton, 29, is a recruitment manager. She enjoys all the perks of an A-list lifestyle, for a fraction of the price.

I've always wanted to experience the lifestyle of a celebrity and SeventyThree offers that. The company is a lifestyle service that helps you live the millionaire lifestyle. Membership costs Dhs50,000 but their Be Affluent For A Day package goes for just Dhs2,700.

My day started with a chauffeur whisking me off to Claridge's for breakfast to meet a consultant who talked me through the profile of a millionaire. She had a huge knowledge about the lifestyle of a VIP. Then I went to meet my celebrity stylist who took me to a whole host of expensive shops, educating me in appropriate VIP outfits. I was then taken for a light lunch at A-list haunt, Le Caprice. After that, a life coach joined us and showed me how successful people achieve happiness, confidence and life balance. The spa was next, followed by a talk about the VIP social scene. Later, I was taken for dinner at Annabel's, where the city's wealthiest people mingle. It was a wonderful day.

This experience opened my eyes to the city around me and, thanks to the consultants, allowed me to tap into London's VIP lifestyle. I couldn't believe how invigorating the feeling was, and having all these fantastic people treating you like royalty makes it feel so real. It also helped improve my self-confidence; I've learnt to drive and I'm now getting control of my finances. So, who knows? One day this might all become a reality!"
